Budget Cuts - Consequences

- Fewer adjunct faculty and TA’s
- Fewer and less variety in classes
- Fewer low enrollment classes
- Increased class size
- Permanent faculty will need to teach more required classes
- Slower growth or reduction in the total number of permanent faculty
Budget Cuts – The Future

- Future additional cuts - possible to likely
- Goals:
  - Protect the core = permanent faculty and staff positions
  - Offer more courses online and in summer
  - Continue to support faculty and students to achieve professional and educational goals
  - Postpone nonessential expenditures
  - Replace central OTIS with college OTIS (mostly from vacant faculty positions)

- Comfortable seat, without pneumatic adjustments to worry about, keeps students comfortable in a variety of postures.
- Open seat design offers easy access while arms serve as backpack hooks.
- Steelcase warranty, with elevated durability testing makes node an easy choice.
- Personal worksurface is adjustable, non-handled, and large enough to support digital and analog resources.
- Swivel seat keeps open sightlines between student and instructor, whiteboard, and other students.
- Casters lend mobility for quick, easy transitions between classroom modes.
- Base keeps backpacks and personal belongings out of the aisle.
