Renaissance Italy’s History and Music—Summer 2016

Study abroad at OU’s Center in Arezzo, Italy, led by two OU professors: Jane Wickersham (History) and Jennifer Saltzstein (Music). Participate on excursions to Rome, Florence, Padua and Venice. Learn about Medieval and Renaissance history and music through a combination of traditional classroom lectures and trips to sites that are important to the course content.

HIST 3120  The Sacred and the Secular in Medieval and Renaissance Italy (3 credits)
CAS 3900  Music and Culture of Medieval and Renaissance Italy (3 credits) Approved by the School of Music as upper division MUSC elective.
Requirements: 2.5 GPA; no Italian language required

Dates: June 30—July 30, 2016
Application Deadline: February 21, 2016

Cost: $6155 - May vary with exchange rate and number of participants Included: all housing, entry fees and hotel with breakfast in Rome, group arrival and farewell meals, transportation from Rome to Arezzo, transport on field trips, breakfasts and dinners in Arezzo, mandatory study abroad insurance, Education Abroad application fee; estimates of additional meals and airfare.
Not included: OU tuition and fees for 6 credits, passport, local transportation, miscellaneous personal expenses and textbooks.

Karen L. Elmore
College of Arts and Sciences
International Programs Director
Ellison Hall 232
Tel: 405-325-4716
karenelmore@ou.edu
http://cas.ou.edu/study-abroad
http://iadvise.ou.edu/casip

Search “Renaissance” at:
http://studyabroad.ou.edu